PORQUEROLLES

THE ISLAND EXPRESSION OF THE FINE WINES FROM PROVENCE

Porquerolles, an island. Cast off the ordinary. Even ashore, sea is always present, as the freshness of the spray forms a blissful union with the scents of the pine grove. The historic vineyard is bathed in light and derives its distinctive taste from the glistening crust of the thousand-year-old shales, on which the tender night sprinkles dew drops. Now owned by CHANEL, Domaine de l'Ile produces wine formed by island soil, loving sun and invigorating wind.

A FAMILY AND AN ISLAND

François-Joseph Fournier bought the island as a wedding gift for his beautiful young wife, Sylvia. He spent his life dedicated to turning the island into a paradise. Over the years, it passed down to their great grandson, Sébastien Le Ber.

2021 ROSÉ

Composition

31% Mourvèdre, 29% Cinsault, 20% Syrah,
15% Grenache, 5% Tibouren

Tasting Notes

The 2021 Rosé displays a luminous pale pink color. Bright strawberry, raspberry and grenadine aromas are invigorated by hints of pink grapefruit notes from the Cinsault. On the palate, red berry flavors are joined by rich red cherry from the Mourvèdre and notes of blackcurrant and spice from the Syrah, leading to a long, refreshing finish with touches of saline.
